DAILY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL

WASHOE COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

C. C. POWNING..EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

WEDNESDAY.....AUGUST 30, 1876.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President:

RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, OF OHIO.

For Vice President:

WILLIAM A. WHEELER.
OF NEW YORK.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:

R. M. DAGGETT.....Storey
GEO. TUPLY.....Ormsby
W. W. BISHOP.....Lincoln

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT:

C. R. LEONARD.

FOR CONGRESS.

THOMAS WREN.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

The Democratic State Convention, which has been in session in Virginia for the past two days, concluded its labors yesterday, with the following result:

Presidential Electors—J. C. Hagerman, of Washoe, E. Blennerhasset, of Humboldt, J. C. Currie, of Storey.

Supreme Judge—J. M. Kirkpatrick of Storey.

Congressman—A. C. Ellis, of Ormsby.

The compliment paid Mr. Hagerman, of Reno, was well merited. He has done yeoman service for the party, and is entitled to its highest honors. He will run ahead of his party ticket in Washoe county. Mayor Currie, another Elector, is an old "war horse" and stands well on the Comstock. Of the other nominee we know nothing.

Kirkpatrick, the nominee for Supreme Judge, is a lawyer in Virginia City, and has been a partner of Senator Stewart's. That will probably condemn him with the people. It is said of him though, that he is one of the smoothest talkers of which the party can boast.

The Democracy must have been hard up for Congressional material. They fell back on their defeated candidate of two years ago, who will share a like fate in this Centennial campaign. The gallant Colonel had no trouble in obtaining title from Pap Price, the brutal Rebel General. But from the people of the battle born State he will never gain Congressional honors. The people are still true to the lessons of the past, and have no desire to trust a man where he can desert them in the hour of danger. The nomination of Ellis will drag down the entire ticket. At this writing we have not seen the platform of the party—but of course it is "reform".

Retrenchment.

W. H Stevens, Esq., book-keeper of the Branch Mint, Carson, was in the city Sunday. Mr. Stevens reports a reduction in the wages of the Mint operatives of fifteen per cent. A former reduction had been made, which was about all that some could stand and live, and the present reduction is severely felt, especially by the ladies. At one time they received $90 per month in greenbacks. This was by the previous reduction cut down to $80 in like currency, and now fifteen per cent. more is taken off by reason of the reduction in the appropriation. There were in the Mint previous to the reduction some five Democrats and several Liberals, but they all feel the injustice of a retrenchment which is aimed at a laboring class heretofore but poorly paid for their services, and are all Republicans now.—Enterprise of Tuesday.

PICNIC.—We acknowledge receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Miners Union Picnic, to be held at Farmer Treadways ranch, Carson City on Saturday September 9th 1876. It will be a magnificedt affair, as the grandest preparations are being made for it. One of the great features will be the target shooting, to which every militia company in the State is invited to send representatives. The ladies who are skilled in drawing bows will have an opportunity, also, to compete for a different prize than is usually their reward for a successful exercise of their abilities in this line.

SENATOR SHARON and a party of his friends paid a visit to Willow Glen Cottage near San Jose, last week, and while there the company were serenaded by a number of the young men of San Jose. The affair ended in the usual happy style of serenades.

DURING Mr. Flood's trip to the Eastern States, Mr. James C Fair will reside in San Francisco to manage the affairs of the bonanza firm. Mr. and Mrs. Fair are now staying at the Grand Hotel.

TRADE DOLLARS are selling for ninety-four cents in Virginia City.

GREY & ISAACS, the rulers and regulators of prices of the dry goods trade in Reno, are doing an immense business in their new store on Virginia street, next door to Beck & Co., and opposite their old stand. This wide-awake young firm has revolutionized the dry goods trade in Reno, and intend maintaining their great popularity, if low prices and fair dealings will accomplish it. They have extraordinary facilities for purchasing goods, and are daily in receipt of the latest novelties known to the European and American trade. Ladies will save money by patronizing this energetic young house, for not only have they convinced the entire population of Reno that they have sold goods lower than the same could be bought in San Francisco, but are determined to still continue to run in the same channel. Notwithstanding the enormous advance in the price of Calico, they still continue to sell 16 yards for $1. Special reduction in black silks and carpets. Ladies just step into the "Centennial" and feast your eyes on the magnificent stock of goods, as your true friends, Grey & Isaacs, will always be pleased to show you their complete assortment of goods, whether you want to buy or not. *

CLOTHES CLEANED AND DYED.—Mr. Felix McHugh having established a clothes cleaning and dyeing business at the Pollard House, is now ready to clean all ladies' and gentlemen's clothing, blankets, gloves, all kinds of laces, and merinos so that they will look as well as new. All kinds of dyeing done with neatness and dispatch. An experience of thirteen years in the East guarantees him to ensure satisfaction. Prices reasonable. Orders left at the dye works will be called for and returned. Give him a trial is all he asks. *

CENTENNIAL.—New goods, latest novelties, real laces, etc., just arrived at Grey & Isaacs. Call and examine. *

Mrs. MILLER was buried yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. No weeping relatives or respecting friends paid the last sad rite of laying her gently away in the tomb—the undertaker and his aids were all who witnessed the burial. She had lived an eventful life; she had made many crooked steps; wrong-doing had made her famous; two men are said to have been laid low by her intrigue and influence; one man now stands with his life answerable because of her; another is answerable for a State Prison offence for harboring her when she burst her prison and fled—but all these have received the fullest recompense she could give—her life. At the altar of sin she sacrificed everything. She sleeps "unwept, unhonored and unsung." Let her sad fate be a warning. Truly, "the wages of sin is death."

SINGER MACHINE AGENCY.—Mr. T. Stark gives notice that he has the agency of the Singer sewing machine, and is prepared to sell them on the installment plan. A full sort of attachments will also be kept. Mr. Stark can be found at Sanders & Co.'s. Read his ad.

RENO GAS WORKS.—M. C. Lake returned from California yesterday where he has been on matters connected with the establishment of gas works in this town, under the plan proposed by Mr. M. G. Elmore, of which frequent mention has been made in these columns. Lake visited Chico and Woodland, in both of which places he found the system working admirably, and the people very much pleased with the gas, saying it furnishes as brilliant a light as any they wish for. The result of Mr. Lake's visit confirms the belief of the gentlemen interested in this new enterprise here that the time is ripe for the institution of the project. Work will be commenced immediately—within two weeks. Pipes will be laid all over the town, and before snow flies Reno will be burning gas, and thus present a genuine city like appearance.

SIERRA VALLEY NEWS.—From a gentlemanwho came in from Sierra Valley yesterday we learn that a man named Geo Cartrell broke his leg on the 2d of August, by falling from a hay wagon. It was feared that amputation would be necessary.

The farmers of the north end of the valley have finished cutting their hay crop. The yield far exceeded their expectations. In the south end the farmers have not been quite so lucky, as the water overflowed the land and injured the crop. The entire yield of the valley for the season is estimated at 20,000 tons. Our informant further states that the valley now affords excellent pasturage and he thinks that stock men would do well to take notice of the fact.

TRUSTEES.—In accordance with Art. III of the By-laws of the Agricultural Society polls will be opened at the Fair Ground, on Thursday and Friday, Sept 14th and 15th, from the hours of 9 o'clock A. M. until 4 P. M., with an intermission of one hour at noon, at which time five Trustees of the Society shall be elected by ballot, to serve for 1877 Stockholders will govern themselves accordingly.

GAME LAW.—To-morrow is the last day of the game law's restrictions. On Friday you can carry your gun on your shoulder, and not sneak out with it under your coat. You need not knock the birds down with a club to keep them from running over you, but you can shoot them and not call them young chicken while cooking. Strange that a day or two will change the customs and language of man, fowl and beast.

LAYING CORNER STONE.—Members of the various lodges, I. O. O. F., are invited to meet at Truckee Lodge Hall, at 1 o'clock, to-day, to attend the laying of the corner stone of the Odd Fellows' new building. At 2 P. M. the procession will start from Truckee hall and proceed to the new building where the usual ceremonies will take place. The R. W. G. M., C C. Batterman, will officiate, and P. G M., Adkinson, will deliver the oration.

HARNESS, ETC.—J. B. Gunther, successor to S. Fisher, will endeavor to satisfy customers as to quality of goods and price. Mr Gunther deals in harness, saddles, bridles, brushes, curry combs, horse blankets, robes, whips and all other articles usually kept in a first class establishment. carriage trimming and repairing done upon short notice. Give Gunther a call when you want anything in his line.

GREY & ISAACS are doing a tremendous business in the Dry Goods line. Look at their two column ad. in another part of the paper and see what rare articles they have. Then, after seeing what they are on paper, step around to the "Centennial" and see how these articles look on the shelves. What the ladies want they have in stock, and the prices shall be made to suit.

IN BUSINESS.—Dr. G. R Hutchinson, surgical and mechanical dentist, has again resumed the practice of his profession. The Dr. is an old timer here but ill health has incapacitated him from work for a couple of years His card appears in another column.

WE call attention to the Reno Saddle Rock Oyster House. Mr. Kelliher, the proprietor, has had much experience in his line, and knows "how to keep a hotel" You can depend on getting the very best the markets afford at his restaurant. Try him

LEG RE-SET.—Mrs. Dixon, whose leg was broken some time since, still suffers intense pain. Her leg was reset last evening for the fourth time since the accident. The delicate operation was skillfully performed by Drs. Hogan & Dawson.

ASSOCIATE.—W. M. Griffin has become associated with James Toombs in the grocery and provision business. The new firm will do their best to please all who may favor them with patronage.

GLENDALE SCHOOL.—The Glendale public school will open for the Fall term next Monday. Miss Frankie Gibbs has been engaged as teacher.

A LETTER addressed to Jesse Brown, San Francisco, remains in the Reno office. It lacks the necessary 3-cent stamp.

HONEY LAKE APPLES.—A Mr. Arnold, of Milford, has sent Simmons in a lot of Honey Lake apples. They are in keeping with the fine fruit usually grown in that valley.

THE large rush of new advertisements compels us to slack up a little on other reading matter this morning. The "new to-day" will be found very interesting indeed.

PERSONAL.—Judge Hillhouse and Hon. Geo. W. Cassidy, both of Eureka, were in town last evening, en route home. Pleased to have met them.

WESTERN STAR SALOON.—B. Pendola, the proprietor of this saloon which is situated on the west side of Center street, keeps constantly on hand the choicest beverages of all kinds and the best brands of cigars. Among his choice drinks are Pendola's favorite, pineapple, cabinet, Pendola's punches and the renowned ambrosial cocktails, all of which are daily dispensed at the Western Star. Every attention is paid to patrons. Order and civility is the rule at this saloon. *

ALLEN C. BRAGG, agent for the Home Mutual and Faneuil Hall Fire Insurance Companies, is prepared to insure your property against loss by fire, in the above first class companies. Losses promptly adjusted and paid in gold coin. Rates law. Office at C. A. Bragg & Co.'s lumber yard, Reno, Nev. *

SITUATION WANTED.—By an experienced woman, who understands housekeeping in all of its branches, or to do chamber work in a hotel or lodging house. No objection to going into the country. Inquire for further particulars at the Western House. *

LOST.—Last Monday evening, on either Commercial Row or Virginia street, a gold horse head, with blood stone setting. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning to this office. *

WARNER'S Sanitary Corsets and child's waist and hose supporter introduced to the ladies of Reno by Mrs. Marsh, may be found at Miss. Golden's millinery store, Virginia Street. au21-3m*

DON'T READ THIS!—If you do you will find that you can buy building lots better and in higher state of cultivation than any found in Reno, by calling on Stephen Conner, at the Nursery. jy23
